

World Crafts Council - Europe

World Crafts Council - Europe

is one of the five regional branches (Africa, Asia, Latin America, North America and Europe) of the World Crafts Council International, an international, non-governmental, non-profit organisation recognised by UNESCO, founded in 1964.

Its general objectives are to strengthen the status of crafts as a vital part of cultural and economic life, to promote a sense of fellowship among the craftspeople of the world and to offer them encouragement, help and advice.

World Crafts Council - Europe

- Promotes the design-led crafts and applied arts in Europe.
- Builds up an international network of contacts in these fields.
- Collects and spreads information across a large network of members.
- Represents crafts at international, official, political and administrative levels.
- Fosters crafts as a professional activity producing work of the highest quality.

Membership

Individual Membership

Membership of WCC-Europe is also open to individual craftspeople in Europe who are willing to support WCC-Europe's aims, or craftspeople from countries which are not yet member entities of the organisation.
