- A TIP from our member Angela Baduel-Crispin :
Hello,
As a member of the WCC as well as an active member of the Association of Contemporary Jewellery UK, I think this information may be of interest to our members.
Although it may already be of your knowledge, I would like to inform the office of the recent book release by The Association of Contemporary Jewellery UK (ACJ): "JEWELLERS- The Directory" published by A&C Black Publishers UK.

<http://www.acblack.com>

In this high quality book of 172 pages, beautiful work of 160 artist members is shown on each page plus a useful list at the end of the book of galleries and craft fairs which carry contemporary work.

This book can be a useful reference for gallery owners and collectors who wish to discover high quality work being done in contemporary jewelry, but also great for artists to see what is happening in the contemporary world of jewelry.

Kind Regards,

Angela
